

Journal

STUDENT LIVING

House Rules

Contents

1. Introduction	3	12.8 Resources to Loan.....	9
2. Definitions & Interpretation	3	13. Your Premises	9
3. Journal's Community Values	3	13.1 Rental Services.....	9
4. Induction Expectations	3	13.2 Affixing or Pasting	9
5. Under 18 Residents	3	13.3 Water, Gas and Electricity	9
6. The Journal Team	4	13.4 Reasonable Use Policy.....	10
6.1 Student Support.....	4	13.5 Additional Fees and Charges.....	10
6.2 The Journal Student Experience Framework.....	4	13.6 Room Changes.....	10
6.3 Student Communications	4	13.7 Room Assignments.....	10
7. Academic Status and Progress	4	13.8 Cleanliness of your Premises and/or Apartment	10
8. Activities and Events	4	13.8.1 Purchasing Cleaning	10
9. Rules Applying to Behaviour	4	13.8.2 Self Cleaning	10
9.1 Noise and Compulsory Quiet Times.....	4	13.8.3 Offensive Odours	10
9.2 Dangerous/Illegal Activity.....	5	13.9 Access to Premises.....	11
9.3 Antisocial Behaviour	5	14. Apartment Living	11
9.4 Hazing, Bullying, Discrimination and Harassment.....	5	14.1 Privacy	11
9.5 Drugs, Alcohol and Gambling	5	14.2 Fire Alarms	11
9.5.1 Smoking and Drugs	5	14.3 Cleanliness.....	11
9.5.2 Alcohol	5	14.4 Damage.....	11
9.5.3 Gambling	6	14.5 Personal Belongings.....	11
9.5.4 Firearms and Fireworks	6	14.6 Visitors and Guests	12
10. Safety and Security	6	15. Services	12
10.1 Fire Alarms.....	6	15.1 Internet Usage Policy (IUP).....	12
10.2 Evacuation.....	6	15.1.1 IT Security	12
10.3 Smoke Alarms	6	15.1.2 Monitoring and Compliance	12
10.4 General Safety	7	15.1.3 Social Media	12
10.5 Personal Safety.....	7	15.1.4 Prohibited IUP Activities	12
10.6 Property Safety.....	7	15.1.5 IT Infrastructure	12
10.7 Keys and Security	7	15.2 Mail, Parcels, Deliveries.....	12
11. Visitors and Guests	7	15.3 Maintenance and Repairs.....	13
12. Our Facilities	8	16. Your Health and Wellbeing	13
12.1 Care of Facilities, Common Rooms and Building Common Areas	8	16.1 Preventative Health Actions	13
12.2 Common Rooms.....	8	16.2 Illness, Accident or Emergency.....	13
12.3 Gym	8	16.3 Absence from Journal Facility*.....	13
12.4 Noticeboards.....	9	17. Damage and Vandalism	13
12.5 Common Area Fridges.....	9	18. Disciplinary Process and Procedures	13
12.6 Laundries	9	19. Prohibited Conduct: Dismissible Offences	14
12.7 Bicycle Use.....	9	20. Complaints, Appeals and Suggestions	14
		20.1 Complaints and Appeals.....	14
		20.2 Tenant Appeal Rights & Advocacy.....	14
		21. Departure and Cancellation from Premises	14
		21.1 Early Departure/Tenancy Takeover	14

21.1.1	Finding a Replacement Tenant	15
21.1.2	Early Checkout	15
21.1.3	Bond Claim/Additional Costs	15
21.2	End-of-Lease Departure	15
21.3	First Year Student Cancellation Policy	15
22.	Suggestions	15
23.	Privacy	16

1. Introduction

- (a) Journal House Rules (House Rules) supplement the Residential Rental Agreement (Agreement) and provide guidance and additional detailed information on Journal's policies and procedures
- (b) All residents, their visitors and guests are required to comply with these House Rules.
- (c) Failure to comply with these House Rules or any variation to them will constitute a failure to comply with provisions of the Agreement and may lead to: disciplinary actions, written warnings, formal breaches, termination or eviction.
- (d) Any changes to the House Rules will be communicated to existing residents on the portal and such changes shall be applicable within 7 days of communication.

2. Definitions & Interpretation

The following definitions apply in these House Rules:

- (a) The terms "we", "us", "our" and "Journal" refer to Journal Student Living Pty Ltd (ACN 615 183 474) and its associated entities.
- (b) "facility" means the Journal facility at which you are a resident;
- (c) "The Journal Team" includes the Assistant General Manager; the Student Life team; the reception, administrative and customer service team; all of whom provide, as is applicable given the circumstances, day to day support and services to residents at the facility;
- (d) "resident", "residents", "you" or "your" means a renter residing at a Journal facility; and
- (e) Unless the context indicates otherwise and as is applicable, terms defined in the Agreement shall have the same meaning in these House Rules.

3. Journal's Community Values

At all times, you must respect and act in a manner consistent with Journal RESPECTFUL values being:

Responsive	We are innovative and responsive to the needs of individuals and cohorts, while being inclusive and considerate of differences.
Enriching	We are committed to an environment of collaboration, information sharing and knowledge transfer to enhance our student experience.
Safe and Secure	We ensure residents living with us have a holistically secure and safe living environment.
Proactive:	We proactively encourage personal accountability and the development of resilience to enhance personal development and growth.
Encouraging:	We encourage health and wellbeing and academic excellence and welcome the exploration of new interests and talents.

Connected:	We connect to our local neighbourhood by supporting the activities of altruistic minded and engaged students, and encourage contributions to our community.
Tolerant:	We nurture tolerance by encouraging empathy, cultural sensitivity and an awareness of difference and diversity.
Focused:	We are committed to fostering a sense of belonging and we are purposeful in nurturing an outstanding student experience.
Understanding:	We are compassionate, empathetic and considerate of the needs of our diverse residential community.
Lively:	We are energetic, dynamic and enthusiastic, always striving to create a vibrant, thriving community.

4. Induction Expectations

- (a) Journal requires residents to complete, as directed, the Journal Guide, compulsory inductions, shared living apartment briefing, orientation sessions and/or training.
- (b) The Journal Guide, compulsory inductions, orientation sessions and/or training will include but are not limited to: orientation of the building, gym induction, evacuation procedures, specific health, wellbeing and safety training, including instructional videos

Journal expects each resident to make every effort to complete these requirements to ensure the key requirements of health, wellbeing and safety are understood.

5. Under 18 Residents

- (a) Residents under the age of 18 (U18) may be residing within the facility. Journal is committed to the health, safety and wellbeing of all children and has zero tolerance for child abuse.
- (b) Residents under the age of 18 can expect to be safe and to feel safe at Journal. Residents can tell a member of the Journal team if they don't feel safe.
- (c) Residents under the age of 18 years must sign a separate U18 agreement that outlines clear requirements for any U18 resident living at a Journal facility. The U18 agreement has strict rules in place that include a set curfew for entry and exit of the building as agreed with your guardian. Breaches of any U18 agreement will be reported to your guardian and disciplinary actions may be taken.

6. The Journal Team

6.1 Student Support

- (a) The Journal Team operates 24 hours a day, 7 days a week (24/7).
- (b) The Journal Team assists in creating a positive living away from home and learning experience. They can also refer you to services at your university. Please don't hesitate to seek their guidance at any time.

6.2 The Journal Student Experience Framework

The Student Life team organise a diverse and exciting range of activities and events as part of the following Journal Student Experience Pillars:

- Wellbeing and Health;
- Academic Excellence;
- Social Community;
- Culture and the Arts; and
- Leadership and Employment.

Find out what's on at your facility by viewing the event schedule in your facility calendar on the Journal app or Portal.

6.3 Student Communications

The Journal Team will send electronic communications to your nominated email address about your room, maintenance, community messages and upcoming events. Please ensure you do not unsubscribe from these emails.

7. Academic Status and Progress

- (a) Only students at an acknowledged institution or registered training organisation are eligible to reside at Journal facilities.
- (b) Residents who require support in the academic space can engage with the Student Life team to obtain referrals to their place of study.

8. Activities and Events

- (a) All events and activities organised by residents must abide by and adhere to the following guidelines:
 - the event host is a current Journal resident;
 - alcohol is not provided at any sanctioned event or activity;
 - alcohol is not to be consumed at any event or activity unless approved in writing by The Journal Team; and
 - alcohol is not to be used as a drawcard for activities or events.
- (b) All parties, events and/or functions with more than eight people present must have prior written approval from The Journal Team which can be obtained by submitting an Event/Function Request form at reception.

- (c) Events or activities that do not meet these requirements will not be permitted.
- (d) Disciplinary action may apply if you engage in unapproved or unsanctioned events or activities within the facility. Residents are responsible for the conduct of any guests at this event.
- (e) Residents are responsible for the returning the space to its original condition at the conclusion of the event. Cleaning charges may be applied.

9. Rules Applying to Behaviour

- (a) You are to respect the rights of all residents, facility contractors and The Journal Team.
- (b) You are required to abide by the following rules regarding behaviour and comply with The Journal Team directions at all times.
- (c) These rules operate in conjunction with your university regulations and statutes (in particular, the student general misconduct procedures at each institution), as well as all state and federal laws.
- (d) Residents are required to engage with and comply with requests from Journal staff, including but not limited to; General Manager and Journal Team

9.1 Noise and Compulsory Quiet Times

- (a) For the benefit of all, a noise curfew applies to all residents between the hours of 11:00pm–9:00am every night. It does not restrict when to use facilities, it simply guides how to use facilities.
- (b) Outside the noise curfew, you must keep noise at a reasonable level within your apartment and in common spaces. Any noise can be unreasonable depending on its volume, type of noise, how long it continues, and/or its frequency.
- (c) You are not permitted to play loud musical instruments, stereos, sound systems or televisions so as not to cause disturbance.
- (d) Mixing decks and DJ are not permitted in the facility without the prior written approval of The Journal Team.
- (e) It is the responsibility of all residents, jointly and individually, to respect the noise curfew to maintain an atmosphere conducive to study and rest and to make others aware if noise levels are too high.
- (f) Doors to lower ground external communal spaces are to be kept closed 11:00pm–9:00am and socialising in the courtyard to be limited in respect to other residents and our neighbours.

- (g) Access to the rooftop terraces is between 7am – 10pm
- (h) During study periods additional noise curfew restrictions may be applied which will be advised accordingly.

9.2 Dangerous/Illegal Activity

Residents are not permitted to engage in dangerous or reckless behaviour that may cause harm to themselves or others or damage the facility.

9.3 Antisocial Behaviour

- (a) Antisocial behaviour that disturbs, annoys or interferes with a person's ability to go about their business; is deemed to be threatening or abusive, or by virtue of its intensity and/or repetitiveness compromises the health, safety and wellbeing of other residents, facility contractors or the The Journal Team and will not be tolerated.
- (b) You must not make an audio or video recording of private/non-public conversations or meetings without the knowledge and prior consent of all participants being recorded.

9.4 Hazing, Bullying, Discrimination and Harassment

Journal does not tolerate any form of hazing, bullying, discrimination or harassment based on race, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, relationship status, age, disability, political belief and/or religious belief Or intentional harassment to cause distress or harm.

- (a) Examples of such behaviour are:
 - Hazing: harassment, abuse or humiliation as a way of initiating a person into a group.
 - Harassment: unwanted behaviour that makes a person feel intimidated offended or humiliated.
 - Sexual Harassment: unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature including unwelcome requests for sexual favours where a person is offended, humiliated or intimidated and a reasonable person would have anticipated such offence.
 - Bullying: unreasonable behaviour directed towards an individual or a group of individuals. Bullying includes verbal abuse, yelling, screaming, offensive language, online bullying or physical abuse. Practices that threaten, humiliate, intimidate or abuse also constitute bullying.
 - Cyber Bullying: bullying that occurs through the use of technology such as internet, social media, mobile devices or cameras.
 - Discrimination: less favourable treatment of a person or group on the basis of their background or personal characteristics rather than individual merits.

- (b) Any unwelcome communication or conduct must be reported to the Journal Team.

9.5 Drugs, Alcohol and Gambling

9.5.1 Smoking and Drugs

- (a) Smoking, vaping and drug related activities are strictly prohibited in the facility including any external areas surrounding the facility marked as "No Smoking" areas. It is a breach of the House Rules to smoke or vape in a "No Smoking" area.
- (b) Where there is reasonable evidence that a resident has been smoking or vaping in the facility or in a "No Smoking" area, the resident will be fined and shall be liable for the costs of returning the affected area to a satisfactory condition, as determined by Journal acting reasonably.
- (c) Residents, visitors and guests are not permitted to be in a facility under the influence of illicit drugs.
- (d) The use, possession of or dealing in illicit or non-prescribed drugs is strictly prohibited.

9.5.2 Alcohol

- (a) Except for U18 residents, alcohol may be possessed and consumed responsibly in the facility.
- (b) In order to ensure the safe and responsible consumption of alcohol, please abide by the following rules:
 - all events and activities must be approved by The Journal Team;
 - all games and activities centred around/or encouraging the consumption of alcohol are prohibited at all times;
 - beverages are not to be consumed in glass whilst in common areas;
 - alcohol containers/collections that promote irresponsible drinking/binge-drinking (such as but not limited to kegs, beer balls, funnels, beer bong, punch buckets, shot glasses) are not permitted in the facility. Such items may be confiscated and destroyed; and
 - consumption of alcohol to a level that requires medical assistance (e.g. ambulance, hospitalisation), police or security or the intervention of the The Journal Team or fellow resident/s, will require you to meet with a member of the The Journal Team to discuss the incident.

When consuming alcohol in a Journal facility, residents must be aware that it could be in the presence of residents who are under the age of 18 or who do not drink. Respect and sensitivity must be practiced to keep spaces safe and inclusive for all.

9.5.3 Gambling

Organising, managing or undertaking gambling activities is strictly prohibited in the facility.

9.5.4 Firearms and Fireworks

- (a) It is strictly forbidden to possess, handle, display or store firearms, replica firearms, dangerous weapons, explosive or combustible materials in the facility.
- (b) It is not permitted to activate or store fireworks or any other flammable or explosive devices in the facility.
- (c) Journal reserves the right to involve police if it reasonably believes there is a breach of this rule.

10. Safety and Security10.1 Fire Alarms

- (a) If your actions cause a fire alarm to be raised, the cost of the fire brigade call-out or any other charge associated with the triggered alarm will be charged in full to your account and will be payable within 7 days of a written request from Journal.
- (b) If no individual can be identified, the Journal Team reserves the right to divide the cost between all residents of the apartment or, in the case of the building common areas, all responsible parties.
- (c) False alarms can be easily avoided by taking simple and sensible precautions. False alarms deter fire services from attending real emergencies and may endanger lives. Hence, any resident found activating the fire-alarm system maliciously or unnecessarily will be liable for expulsion.
- (d) Interfering with fire-prevention or fire-safety equipment can lead to an eviction and may also be a criminal offence and Journal's management may refer such activities to the police.
- (e) Should you discover a fire, your first priority is to sound the alarm and evacuate the building. Do not attempt to tackle the fire. Please refer to the Journal Guide for instructional videos.
- (f) Care must be taken when you are in your room to prevent fire alarms:
 - stay in your studio or apartment (as applicable) when using any cooking device;
 - remove food from a cooking device after it has been switched off; and
 - while cooking your food, please keep your studio or apartment door closed and the exhaust fan or rangehood on full power. You can also open your window

- Keep your bathroom door closed when showering

- (g) Fire extinguishers and fire blankets are available at various points throughout the building. Please familiarise yourself with these on arrival.

10.2 Evacuation

Journal buildings are equipped with a sophisticated fire- detection system that will be activated if extreme heat and/or smoke is detected.

- (a) You must familiarise yourself with the evacuation procedures and if there is an emergency and the alarm is not sounding, activate the break glass alarm and advise The Journal Team.
- (b) If the fire alarm sounds while you are in the building ensure you follow any directions from the The Journal Team and the evacuation procedures:
 - evacuate the building in an orderly manner via the nearest escape route without delay;
 - do not use elevators;
 - walk, do not run;
 - follow the green emergency exit signs placed in the corridors and building common areas that mark out the evacuation route;
 - once you have left the building head straight to the designated fire assembly point and wait for further instruction;
 - do not leave the assembly point until you are advised that you may do so by the The Journal Team or fire brigade officers; and do not re-enter the building without prior permission from the The Journal Team or fire brigade officers.
- (c) The fire alarm is tested regularly. The test can be recognised as a short 5-10 second burst of the fire alarm sirens. A full fire drill will be held periodically and will be announced in advance. We require all residents to cooperate during the exercise.
- (d) Fire doors must be closed and corridors kept free from clutter at all times as this will aid your escape should an evacuation be required.

10.3 Smoke Alarms

- (a) Smoke detectors in all rooms, apartments and throughout the facility communal areas are tested every 12 months.
- (b) Information relating to the smoke detector in your specific accommodation type is provided in the Journal Guide and as part of your arrival induction to Journal.
- (c) Should you have any concerns regarding the smoke detector(s) in your accommodation, please report to The Journal Team immediately.
- (d) For further information on smoke detectors in apartments, please refer to rule 14.2.

10.4 General Safety

- (a) You are not permitted to engage in any activity that endangers your own health, safety or hygiene and that of others.
- (b) You are not permitted to sit on windowsills, hang out of windows and hang off balconies.
- (c) You are not permitted to take or use glass outside of your premises and apartment (as is applicable).
- (d) No resident should cause any item or liquid to be thrown from any balcony or window that could cause harm or distress to those below. It is forbidden to dispose of rubbish through windows, balconies or on common areas.
- (e) Doors are not permitted to be propped/chocked open as this may encourage unwanted intruders and will damage doors.
- (f) You are prohibited from having the following items in your premises, apartment (as is applicable) and building common areas and they may be confiscated by the Journal Team:
 - candles, oil-burners, incense, sparklers or anything with a naked flame;
 - Deep fat fryers, pressure cookers and slow cookers;
 - additional furniture;
 - surfboards;
 - wading pools/slippy slides; and
 - unapproved electrical appliances.

10.5 Personal Safety

The facility incorporates security measures to ensure your safety and that of your belongings. Please take the following additional precautions:

- (a) Only let people into the building that you know. Insist on seeing identification for any person you do not know who seeks access to your premises and/or apartment (as is applicable);
- (b) Always lock your premises and/or apartment door (as is applicable);
- (c) After a night out, make plans to get home safely; and
- (d) If you are a victim of a theft, notify a Journal Team member. We also encourage you to make a police report so you can file an insurance claim if necessary.

10.6 Property Safety

- (a) Journal is not responsible for the supervision or security of your personal effects. You must report suspicious persons or behaviour to the Journal Team.
- (b) Keep your premises and/or apartment (as is applicable) locked at all times, secure your personal possessions and keep windows fully closed when you are not in your premises and/or apartment (as is applicable) unless other residents are present in the apartment.
- (c) Do not store excess amounts of cash in your premises and/or apartment (as is applicable).

- (d) We recommend you take out personal contents insurance as you see appropriate — keep lists of the make, model and serial numbers of valuable items to help police track them down if they are stolen.
- (e) Garments in laundry machines should not be left unattended and must be removed at the completion of the wash and dry cycle. Unattended items are disposed of after 24 hours. You are responsible for all personal belongings in the laundry room and anywhere else in the building.

10.7 Keys and Security

- (a) Journal will issue Bluetooth Low Energy virtual keys ("BLE key") to you to access the facility, your premises and/or apartment (as is applicable) via the BLE app. A security passcode must be entered to access your mobile phone.
- (b) If you do not have a mobile phone that can support the BLE app, Journal will issue you with an access card.
- (c) If you lend your mobile phone to any other person you must delete or disable the key app so that the BLE key cannot be used.
- (d) You must not lend your access card to any other person.
- (e) Please immediately report lost or stolen access cards or mobile phones to the Journal Team and return found cards or mobile phones to reception.
- (f) If you lose your BLE key or access card you will be invoiced for the reasonable costs incurred by Journal in arranging for and providing you with a new BLE key or access card

11. Visitors and Guests

Rules apply regarding guests and visitors to the facility as follows:

- (a) A visitor is defined as a person who the resident has invited into the facility for a short period of time and who must leave the building before noise curfew commences at 11pm each night unless they have a guest pass.
- (b) A guest is defined as a person who is staying with a resident in the facility between the hours of 11:00pm– 9:00am who has obtained a guest pass.
- (c) U18 residents are not permitted guests, other than pre-approved immediate family/caregiver. If you are U18 your visitors must leave the premises and/or facility by 10pm.
- (d) You must register your guests' via the Journal portal or reception and obtain a guest pass.
- (e) All guests and visitors must be signed in and out via the QR code displayed at Reception

- (f) Residents must ensure that their visitors and guests are aware of Journal's House Rules and other Journal policies.
- (g) You are responsible for your visitors and guests' conduct, behaviour and/or infringement of House Rules and other Journal policies.
- (h) Visitors and guests are not allowed direct access within the facility. You are required to meet your visitors and guests in the foyer.
- (i) Visitors and guests must be accompanied at all times around the facility by the resident. Visitors and guests are not issued additional keys.
- (j) Visitors and guests may not access the gym and laundry, without prior written permission from the The Journal Team.
- (k) No resident shall have more than two visitors and one guest at any given time.
- (l) All visitors are required to leave the property before the noise curfew commences at 11:00pm each night unless they have a guest pass.
- (m) If you are living in a twin or double share studio room you are not permitted to host a guest.
- (n) You are responsible for informing others in the apartment of your visitors or guests. Guests may be restricted over intake periods
- (o) Journal reserves the right to charge for guests and decline a guest pass application on a case-by-case basis or for disciplinary reasons. Please refer to the Additional Fees and Charges schedule for guest rates.
- (p) Journal's management reserves the right to prohibit a person from entering as a visitor or guest, and to limit the number of occasions an individual may stay in the premises.
- (g) Bin chutes are designed to fit waste of certain sizes and for the accommodation of general and recycling waste. Do not force any items into the bin chute that may block it (for example oversized bags, hard rubbish, cardboard boxes, pillows, balls etc.) Oversized items can be brought to reception or the facility designated oversized bins for disposal. Residents breaching this rule will be responsible for the charges incurred by Journal in rectifying blockages.
- (h) Do not put lithium-ion batteries in the rubbish. Take the batteries to reception for recycling
- (i) Damage to common rooms and/or common areas is not permitted. The cost of replacement or repair will be passed on to the resident/s responsible

12.2 Common Rooms

- (a) Common areas are available for activities such as study groups, meetings and social gatherings that may create more noise than is acceptable in your premises and/or apartment (as is applicable). The common areas across our facilities vary and offer a range of amenities including vending machines, kitchens, BBQs, lounge chairs, TVs, study and meeting rooms.
- (b) Room bookings for select common rooms can be made via the booking screens outside each space.
- (c) No glass is permitted in any outdoor building common areas.
- (d) It is the responsibility of users to ensure that common rooms are cleaned and left in an acceptable state after use.

12.3 Gym

- (a) Use of Journal's gymnasium and equipment is at your own risk and Journal is not liable for any loss, injury or death sustained while using gym facilities.
- (b) The gym is an unsupervised area; however, CCTV operates 24/7.
- (c) You are expected to leave the gym equipment in a clean and hygienic state after use. For example you must wipe down equipment and return equipment to its original space.
- (d) Prior to using the gym, you must have completed the Journal Guide and accepted the terms and conditions of use on the app.
- (e) Each piece of equipment must be used for its intended purpose only.
- (f) You are prohibited from bringing your own fitness equipment (i.e. weights, benches etc.) into the gym.
- (g) Only water or sports drinks in plastic or aluminium bottles are allowed in the gym. No glass bottles are allowed in the gym.
- (h) You are not permitted to host a trainer or train other residents. Only approved fitness instructors may facilitate classes or training

12. Our Facilities

12.1 Care of Facilities, Common Rooms and Building Common Areas

- (a) All residents are jointly and individually responsible for keeping the building common areas and/or apartment common areas (as is applicable) clean and neat.
- (b) Furniture, mattresses, cushions or equipment may not be removed from any premises, apartment (as is applicable) or building common areas.
- (c) All forms of graffiti are strictly prohibited.
- (d) No resident may tamper with electricity or any electrical appliances.
- (e) You are expected to separate recycling and general waste, empty and deposit garbage into the appropriate bins and/or bin-chutes provided.
- (f) Please do not leave any garbage or bags on the floor of the bin chute room. Residents will be charged for dumping rubbish.

- (i) No food or alcohol is to be brought into or consumed in the gym.
- (j) If a resident is unsure of anything or requires assistance, please ask our The Journal Team for help.
- (k) In case of an emergency telephone 000 immediately and notify reception.

12.4 Noticeboards

Noticeboards are only for the use of The Journal Team. If a resident wishes to use a noticeboard, they must first obtain permission from the Journal Team.

12.5 Common Area Fridges

- (a) Fridges in building common areas may only be used to store food for pre-approved events for a maximum of 24 hours prior to an event unless approved in writing by the Journal Team.
- (b) All items stored in building common area fridges for more than 24 hours will be disposed of.

12.6 Laundries

- (a) Communal laundry facilities are located in the facility (including washing-product vending machines, iron and ironing boards) and are available for use 24/7.
- (b) You are prohibited from ironing clothing or linen in your premises and/or apartment (as is applicable). Irons and ironing boards are provided for use in the laundries.
- (c) Non-residents are not permitted to use these laundries.
- (d) If you do not wish to wait for your cycle to finish, please return within 20–30 minutes to collect your items.
- (e) Journal takes no responsibility for any damage to or loss of items while in the washing and drying process.
- (f) Any items left in the laundry for more than 24 hours will be donated to charity or disposed of.

12.7 Bicycle Use

- (a) Bicycles must be stored in designated bike storage areas available and must not be stored or taken into any other area in the facility.
- (b) Journal offers a bike share service for residents. Booking is required at reception and availability is dependent upon and subject to accepting the terms and conditions provided. Charges may apply.
- (c) Journal is not responsible for the security of personal bicycles and residents are required to lock their bicycles.
- (d) The storage of e-bikes, e-scooters, and batteries in rooms and common areas is strictly prohibited. Please store such vehicles/items in designated bike storage areas and observe signage regarding charging.

12.8 Resources to Loan

A selection of equipment such as board games, vacuum-cleaners and sports equipment is available for loan at reception. Borrowed items must be returned within the allotted time and in accordance with Journal's policies. Any lost, stolen or damaged items are chargeable.

13. Your Premises

13.1 Rental Services

- (a) An information guide for renting a home, "Renters Guide" will be provided to you together with the Agreement. An electronic copy of the guide can be found on Consumer Affairs Victoria's website.
- (b) After a condition report is submitted for your premises, any breakage or damage that is not included in the condition report shall be deemed to have been caused by the resident.

13.2 Affixing or Pasting

- (a) It is prohibited to affix or paste items as follows:
 - Doors - on either side of the premises and/or apartment doors.
 - Windows - on either side of any window.
 - Walls - if such affixing or pasting may damage the paintwork.
- (b) If you wish to display or hang pictures or notices in your premises and/or apartment, please use the soft noticeboards provided on the back of the desks and drawing-pins.

13.3 Water, Gas and Electricity

- (a) Included in your rental is an amount allocated for the use of water, gas and electricity. Please switch off all lights and all appliances when leaving your premises and/or apartment (as is applicable).
- (b) The following appliances are not permitted in the building:
 - electric heaters;
 - refrigerators, other than those provided by Journal;
 - washing machines, other than those provided by Journal;
 - portable cooking devices (air fryers, stoves, microwaves etc.), other than those provided by Journal.
- (c) Equipment will be confiscated if not approved by The Journal Team.
- (d) You are strictly prohibited from making any alterations to the electrical equipment of the building.
- (e) Please take care and do not leave appliances unattended when using any personal electrical equipment

13.4 Reasonable Use Policy

You must use electricity, air-conditioning, water and internet sensibly. If consumption of electricity, water, or internet over a continued period of time materially exceeds the median use within the facility, you may be asked to work with our The Journal Team on reducing usage or pay for excessive usage.

13.5 Additional Fees and Charges

There are a number of fees and charges to be aware of that are not covered in your rental payments. You agree to being subject to these charges. Details of additional fees and charges are located on the Journal website and Journal's portal.

13.6 Room Changes

- (a) Room changes will only be approved under special circumstances. If you wish to change rooms, apply via our Room Change Request form at reception.
- (b) Room change fees will be incurred and you will be required to sign a new Agreement or an addendum to your Agreement.

13.7 Room Assignments

- (a) Journal does not assign rooms based on race, nationality, ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation or disability (other than as outlined in this rule).
- (b) Requests by residents to share with a specific person will be considered.
- (c) Premises that have been designed to accommodate residents with special needs and are DDA (Disability Discrimination Act) compliant will be allocated to such residents as a matter of priority. Appropriate documentation must be submitted.
- (d) Journal reserve the right to change a room number allocation prior to the room being occupied.

13.8 Cleanliness of your Premises and/or Apartment

Cleaning of your studio and/or apartment (as is applicable) is not included in your rent. Please refer to the cleaning video on the "Key Info" page of the Journal portal.

- (a) You are expected to wash and put away your dishes after use in building common areas. The Journal Team may remove dirty dishes that are deemed to be a health and safety hazard and dispose of them.
- (b) You are not permitted to hang your washing/clothes on or outside windows.

- (c) You must take reasonable measures to prevent infestations of pests by undertaking the above actions.
- (d) If you need to bring your own mattress, please submit a medical certificate to management to obtain the necessary permission.
- (e) A cleaner may determine that the premises, apartment (as is applicable) and/or building common area are in such a condition that it cannot be cleaned. In such cases, the cleaner will make a report to the The Journal Team who will contact resident(s) of the premises, apartment (as is applicable) or users of the building common area and request immediate rectification. If not sufficiently rectified residents will be charged the cleaning costs or in the case of purchased cleaning, additional cleaning charges.

13.8.1 Purchasing Cleaning

You can purchase the cleaning of your studio and/or apartment (as is applicable) on the Journal portal.

13.8.2 Self Cleaning

- (a) Throughout the period of occupancy, you are expected to be responsible for maintaining your premises and/or apartment (as is applicable) to a standard of cleanliness and tidiness that is acceptable to the General Manager
- (b) The necessary cleaning equipment is available for you to borrow.
- (c) Your cleaning routine must include cleaning kitchen and bathroom appliances and fixtures, regular vacuuming, mopping of floors, cleaning of all counters and surfaces, and full cooperation with Journal waste-disposal guidelines.
- (d) A full list of Fees and Charges for cleaning can be found on Journal's portal

13.8.3 Offensive Odours

- (a) You should take appropriate measures to eliminate offensive odours which can be disruptive to others. Examples include:
 - dirty laundry;
 - dirty cutlery and crockery;
 - general kitchen odours;
 - cooking smells; and
 - greasy food
- (b) If you are responsible for such odours you will be notified and expected to rectify the situation immediately.

13.9 Access to Premises

- (a) Notice period for access to any premises is not required if any of the following conditions apply:
- Journal has reasonable grounds to believe that you have abandoned the premises;
 - in the case of an emergency, which includes but is not limited to:
 - there are reasonable grounds to believe there is a probable risk to yourself, another resident or the facility;
 - you have been reported as missing for an extended period and have not advised the The Journal Team of any intended absence; or
 - emergency cleaning or maintenance of the premises and/or apartment (as is applicable) is required.
- (c) By completing/requesting a Service Request you agree to our The Journal Team or an approved contractor entering your premises and/or apartment (as is applicable) to action the request.

The Journal Team will contact you and, in the case of shared accommodation, all other residents of the premises/apartment, to advise a date/time when the request will be completed, providing at least 24 hours and not more than 7 days notice.

The Journal Team will be considerate and respectful of your room and your belongings. Please engage with Reception at the time of access notification to request to be present for the works or inspection.

14. Apartment Living14.1 Privacy

Journal will not share your personal details with other residents in your shared apartment (or anyone else).

14.2 Fire Alarms

For general fire alarm and evacuation rules please refer to Rules 10.1 and 10.2.

In the event of a false smoke detector activation in your room and/or apartment communal areas, it is your responsibility to be aware of the below:

- (a) All shared living apartments are fitted with delay buttons (AAB button) in case of a false smoke detector activation. An AAB button is located in the common area next to the kitchen and in every bedroom next to the bathroom door.
- (b) In the event the smoke detector is activated in your apartment, you have 30 seconds to press the AAB button in the corresponding activation location. Please continue to press the button every 30 seconds until smoke is cleared

- (c) You will then have 2 minutes to clear any smoke / steam from the area by opening blinds and windows, turning on exhaust fans. Do not open your main apartment door.
- (d) In the event the smoke is not cleared within 2 minutes, a facility wide fire alarm will be activated which will result in a full evacuation and the fire brigade will automatically be notified to attend Journal.
- (e) In the event your room/apartment is responsible for the activation of a facility wide false fire alarm, the relevant fire brigade call out charge as well as any other charges associated with the activation, will be charged in full to your account and will be payable within 7 days of written request by Journal.

14.3 Cleanliness

- (a) It is the responsibility of all residents in the apartment to maintain the cleanliness of communal areas.
- (b) A cleaning roster template is present on your fridge. We suggest all roommates discuss dividing cleaning tasks on a weekly basis
- (c) If the communal areas fail to meet the general cleanliness standard, Journal may arrange for a professional clean to be actioned and the cleaning fee will be split evenly amongst all residents of the apartment.

14.4 Damage

Report any faults and/or damage to The Journal Team as soon as identified, charges may apply to any damage outside of building defects or fair wear and tear.

Any damage that you have failed to notify Journal of in the apartment communal area may lead to potential repair costs being equally charged to all residents of the apartment.

14.5 Personal Belongings

All personal belongings must be removed from the apartment communal area when you vacate. This includes;

- (a) discarding food from the pantry/fridge.
- (b) Packing up all belongings and taking them when you leave.
- (c) Discarding of food from the pantry, fridge and freezer.
- (d) No mail or parcels will be accepted at Journal after you vacate. Any mail left behind will be 'returned to sender' after you vacate.
- (e) Journal does not take responsibility for any items left behind.

14.6 Visitors and Guests

In addition to the general visitor and guest rules outlined in Rule 11 (Visitors and Guests), all apartment residents need to:

- (a) As a courtesy to your room mates, communicate your intention if you plan to bring visitors or guests to your room or apartment.
- (b) Be considerate of others in relation to noise.

15. Services15.1 Internet Usage Policy (IUP)

- (a) Journal, through a third-party internet service provider ("ISP") provides you with wireless access to the internet via a secure log-in for personal study, social and leisure purposes.
- (b) You must comply with the ISP's acceptable use policy from time to time and any other applicable terms in relation to internet usage.
- (c) You must comply with Journal's Reasonable Use Policy in relation to internet use.
- (d) Notwithstanding the prohibited IUP activities listed below, neither Journal nor its agents or affiliates are responsible for providing any form of censorship or content-filtering pertaining to the use of wireless internet services.

15.1.1 IT Security

To access the internet services, you will need a username and password, which will be provided to you at check-in. You are responsible for the security of your username and password.

15.1.2 Monitoring and Compliance

- (a) Journal operates systems to ensure compliance with the ISP's acceptable use policy and this IUP and for security purposes.
- (b) Journal cooperates with any reasonable request from law enforcement and regulatory agencies for records on a resident's internet usage.
- (c) You should have no expectation of privacy when using the internet services.
- (d) If you download software, you must arrange to have such software properly licensed and registered. Downloaded software must be used only under the terms of its licence.
- (e) Please report breaches of the IUP to The Journal Team.

15.1.3 Social Media

The following uses for social media are prohibited:

- (a) Making comments or posting material that might be considered racial, defamatory, bullying, threatening or harassing;
- (b) Use or disclosure of any confidential information about Journal;

- (c) Sharing specific personal information regarding Journal's team members on any social media platforms; or
- (d) Making any comment or posting material that might cause damage to Journal's brand and/or reputation.

15.1.4 Prohibited IUP Activities

The following activities are prohibited under all circumstances:

- (a) Unauthorized downloading and copying of music, videos, films, software and other copyrighted material;
- (b) Distribution of pirated software or data;
- (c) Posting, receiving and/or distributing any illegal, racist, sexist, defamatory, pornographic, abusive and threatening material;
- (d) Displaying, archiving, storing, distributing, editing or recording any illegal material (for example indecent images of children) or any kind of sexually explicit images or documents;
- (e) Impairing or attempting to impair the operation of, or access to, any computer, program or data;
- (f) Gaining or attempting to gain unauthorised access to any computer system for any purpose; and
- (g) Deliberately introducing or passing on any virus, worm, Trojan Horse or trapdoor program code.

15.1.5 IT Infrastructure

Information and communications technology such as computing and television infrastructure (including data network ports, Wi-Fi networks and associated cabling) ("IT Infrastructure") forms part of the building and belongs to Journal. You must not tamper, interfere with or remove any IT infrastructure. You will be responsible for the cost (including administration charges) of repairing any damage to the IT Infrastructure.

15.2 Mail, Parcels, Deliveries

- (a) Parcels delivered to the facility will be kept at reception. These must be collected at the direction of The Journal Team who will notify residents of arrival via email.
- (b) Mail delivered to the facility will be kept in a mail box designated to a corresponding premises and/ or apartment (as is applicable), to be collected at the resident's discretion. No notification from The Journal Team will be given.
- (c) Grocery deliveries must be collected immediately from reception. The Journal Team will not assist in the arrival, collection or delivery of groceries.
- (d) If you order food delivery to the facility you must collect it outside the building. The Journal

Team will not assist in the arrival, collection or delivery of such items.

15.3 Maintenance and Repairs

- (a) Urgent maintenance must be immediately reported to reception.
- (b) Maintenance requests, defects, faulty items or equipment must be reported using the Service Request via the Journal portal or app.
- (c) Items will be repaired or replaced as soon as possible.
- (d) You are not permitted to attempt any repairs yourself. You will be held responsible for any damage caused by such an attempt.

16. Your Health and Wellbeing

16.1 Preventative Health Actions

To live at the facility, it is strongly recommended that you:

- (a) register with your university medical centre/source a local doctor;
- (b) stay up-to-date with immunisations and vaccinations (the flu shot is available at many institutions during the academic term);
- (c) source an Ambulance Service Victoria Ambulance Membership if such services are not covered through your health insurance;
- (d) have a Medicare Card if you are an Australian citizen or resident or a copy of your Overseas Student Health Cover if you are an international student; and
- (e) ensure The Journal Team are aware of any medical or wellbeing concerns that you may require support with during your stay

16.2 Illness, Accident or Emergency

- (a) For minor incidents please contact a member of The Journal Team member.
- (b) Medical services are not available in our facilities. All medical treatment is your own responsibility.
- (c) All injuries, incidents and near-misses must be reported to the Journal Team.
- (d) You must inform our The Journal Team if you are confined to bed due to illness.
- (e) Obtaining and taking medication is your own responsibility.
- (f) Communicable diseases must be reported to our The Journal Team immediately and appropriate steps (such as confinement to your premises and/or apartment (as is applicable)) are taken to minimise spread of infections. If directed by management, you must immediately leave (or not return) the facility after being diagnosed, until such time as you have provided evidence in writing by a medical professional that the all-clear has been given.
- (g) For emergencies telephone 000.

16.3 Absence from Journal Facility*

For the safety and security of residents, please inform The Journal Team if you intend to be absent from the facility for an extended period (more than one week).

*Important Note U18 residents cannot be absent from the facility unless prior written permission has been granted by their Institution

17. Damage and Vandalism

- (a) You must immediately report any property damage and/or vandalism to the Journal Team.
- (b) If you are responsible for the damage, you will be liable for the cost of repairs or replacement.
- (c) You are not permitted to make alterations to building common areas. Alterations to your premises, apartment (as is applicable) must be compliant with renting legislation.
- (d) A resident who is guilty of vandalism, and who leaves their premises before their case is dealt with internally, will be subject to prosecution. Costs to rectify the damages, as determined by Journal, will be sought.
- (e) Tampering with fire alarms, extinguishers, exit signs, smoke detectors and other safety equipment is unlawful and poses a high risk to residents. If you are responsible for tampering, you will be charged recovery costs for the replacement of equipment and any damage.

18. Disciplinary Process and Procedures

In the event of an issue, Journal undertakes that the following will generally occur:

- (a) If you are experiencing any issues you must report them to The Journal Team in a timely manner.
- (b) Journal will conduct investigations with all the parties involved and take appropriate actions.
- (c) If after investigation it becomes evident that a resident is in breach of the House Rules, or other Journal policies, a member of The Journal Team will contact the resident for further discussion. Following an investigation, one or more of the sanctions listed below may apply.
- (d) The following warning system applies to all violations of the House Rules:
 - i. each written warning will be signed by a member of The Journal Team and placed on the resident's file; and
 - ii. a resident is required to acknowledge a breach notice, whether it has been sent via email or hand-delivered. Residents have consented to notices electronically as per the Residential Rental Agreement

- (e) The following sanctions may be applied by Journal following an investigation:
- i. Warning: a written warning is issued.
 - ii. First or Second Breach: formal breach(s) of policy is issued in writing. The breach may be escalated without warning depending on the severity of the incident. Behaviour Management Plan: a formal agreement is issued that requires the resident to undertake certain tasks in order to remain as a resident. Must be signed by the resident and returned.
 - iii. Safety Management Plan: a formal agreement discussed with and agreed upon that requires the resident to undertake certain tasks and activities that pertain to resident health and wellbeing. Compliance is required in order to remain as a resident. Must be signed by the resident and returned.
 - iv. Community Restitution: financial compensation charges to cover costs of damage/cleanliness. May also include restitution in the form of volunteering.
 - v. General Restitution: charges imposed for the action(s) and or behaviour(s).
 - vi. Referral: the matter may be referred to a university, your guardian or external agency.
 - vii. Exclusion/eviction: the termination of the Agreement and notification of expulsion from the facility.

19. Prohibited Conduct: Dismissible Offences

- (a) The following offences are grounds for immediate expulsion from the premises and facility, at the sole discretion of the General Manager:
- i. possession of illegal substances;
 - ii. malicious tampering with fire or safety equipment;
 - iii. behaviour that is deemed violent, threatening, intimidating or abusive towards residents, members of the The Journal Team, facility contractors, guests or visitors;
 - iv. theft of property;
 - v. possession of firearms or other dangerous weapons;
 - vi. possession of fireworks or other explosive devices/ material; or
 - vii. failure to report a serious communicable disease, eg, a positive test to COVID-19 and /or failure to follow directions from the onsite team which relate to public health matters and/or other emergency incidents.
- (b) Upon expulsion, Journal may immediately notify the resident's guardian (as is applicable), the resident's tertiary institution and/or the police, if deemed necessary by Journal.

20. Complaints, Appeals and Suggestions

20.1 Complaints and Appeals

For details on Journal's complaints procedure please contact the Journal Team for assistance.

- (a) If you are aggrieved by a decision or action of a member of the Journal Team, in the enforcement of the Agreement or House Rules, or the undertaking of their duties, you must take up the issue by notifying the Management at management@journalstudentliving.com.au
- (b) If you wish to appeal a decision made by Journal, please do so within 30 days of the decision. Please express your appeal in writing, either in hardcopy or via email, and address it to the Management. Such appeal will be read and duly considered by the Journal Management Team. You will then receive a written response to your appeal. This response is final, and no further appeal or discussion is permissible.
- (c) Upon issue of a notice to vacate, Journal may notify the resident's guardian or emergency contact (as is applicable), appropriate university and/or the police (if the offence is deemed criminal).

20.2 Tenant Appeal Rights & Advocacy

If you continue to be aggrieved by a decision or action of Journal the following external organisations may be of assistance:

- (a) Victoria Legal Aid (Community Legal Services Program) for advice and specialist legal services for tenants;
- (b) Consumer Affairs Victoria, Department of Justice for outreach for residential tenants; and
- (c) Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (Residential Tenancies List) hears disputes between rental providers and renters.

21. Departure and Cancellation from Premises

21.1 Early Departure/Tenancy Takeover

When signing an Agreement, the resident is signing a legal contract under which it is agreed to rent the premises for a fixed term. This means the resident is responsible to pay rent for the premises until the end of the fixed term.

21.1.1 Finding a Replacement Tenant

- (a) Residents are bound by the Agreement under the Residential Tenancies Act 1997 (Act) and all associated terms until the Agreement cancellation has been approved in writing by The Journal Team. If you wish to depart prior to the date on your Agreement, you must submit a Change to Early Termination Request form to reception (form available at reception)
- (b) All replacement tenants must be:
 - students who are able to prove their student status
 - for twin or double share studio room replacements, the same gender and age bracket as the resident (e.g.: male or female under 18 or over 18 years of age)
 - a new Journal customer (the replacement tenant cannot be a person who currently lives at a Journal facility or who has a booking or confirmed future booking at a Journal facility).

21.1.2 Early Checkout

- (a) You must confirm your departure details with reception. Charges will be applied for the remainder of the lease and must be settled prior to departure.
- (b) Following your departure a vacate inspection will take place and your bond refund will be processed. You are responsible to pay Journal's costs as a result of ending a fixed term Agreement early. Please refer to the Additional Fees & Charges Schedule located on the Journal portal as well as Fees & Charges located on the website.
- (c) You can reduce costs by: ensuring the premises and/or apartment (as is applicable) is left in the condition that it was in at the beginning of tenancy (refer Rule 21.2);
 - ensuring that no property is left behind;
 - paying rent up until a replacement renter is found; and
 - searching for a replacement tenant yourself.

21.1.3 Bond Claim/Additional Costs

- (a) If the resident leaves their premises while owing rent or other outstanding amounts, Journal will claim against the bond to recover outstanding amounts.
- (b) Journal may call the resident's emergency contact or guardian if any outstanding amounts are not paid.
- (c) If any outstanding amounts remain unpaid, Journal may engage debt collectors to assist with recovering the amounts owed and place the name of the resident on a tenancy database if permitted by the Act, which could affect the residents' ability to rent properties in the future.

21.2 End-of-Lease Departure

- (a) Your end-of-lease departure date is specified in your Agreement.
- (b) Please ensure you have returned any items that belong to Journal and have vacated the premises by 10.00am on this date.
- (c) Please ensure that the premises and apartment (as is applicable) are left in the same condition as at the commencement date, subject to fair wear and tear.
- (d) If you do not vacate the premises by the end-of-lease departure date specified in your Agreement, you will be required to continue paying rent until you vacate the premises in addition to any costs incurred by Journal and any losses it may suffer.
- (e) When checking out, you are required to:
 - report any maintenance issues that need resolution;
 - remove all food from kitchens and cupboards and dispose of any rubbish and belongings;
 - leave your premises and/or apartment (as is applicable) and contents in a condition that complies with the Journal Cleaning Guidelines;
 - pay any remaining rent, fees or charges owing; and
 - return any equipment/property borrowed.
- (f) In the event that you do not comply with this Rule 21.2, charges may apply as set under Fees and Charges located on the Journal website and the Additional Fees and Charges schedule located on Journal's portal.

21.3 First Year Student Cancellation Policy

Residents should refer to the First Year Student Cancellation Policy located on the Journal website.

22. Suggestions

- (a) Because we value your feedback, we conduct a number of formal surveys and evaluations throughout the year. If you do not wish to provide feedback, please contact a member of The Journal Team.
- (b) For residential-related grievances of a minor domestic nature (e.g. apartment disagreements) please approach The Journal Team, who can connect you with The Student Life team
- (c) As well as providing suggestions for improvements, please inform us of things that are working well or can be further enhanced; as we strive to continually provide the highest levels of service to our residents.

23. Privacy

Journal will handle your personal information in accordance with the Journal Privacy Policy which is located on our website.